

Joanna is a Member appointed Trustee and is the Lead Teaching and Learning Adviser for science with HFL Education (formerly Herts for Learning). She has worked as a science adviser for over twenty years across Hertfordshire and a number of London Boroughs. In her role, she provides curriculum and pedagogical guidance, professional development, and coaching for Classroom Teachers and Subject Leaders.

Joanna is passionate about providing opportunity and experience for all children through a rich curriculum instilling a love for lifelong learning. Joanna is a Member appointed Trustee serving as Vice-chair of the Governing Board, Chair of the Pupil and Curriculum Committee and as Link Trustee for Looked After Children, Pupil Premium & Sports Premium.