

Mark is a Member appointed Trustee and is a chartered accountant with twenty years experience across both the private and public sectors; currently working in a senior finance role at a global healthcare solutions company. He is a Fellow of the Institute of the Chartered Accountants in England & Wales and has worked in a variety of financial roles including audit, business partnering and commercial negotiations.

Mark is married with two children who both go to school in Watford. He serves as Chair of the Finance and Resources Committee.